

AAUW Membership Perks

Fund Your Education

- AAUW offers undergraduate scholarships to women in their communities.
- They invest $3.7 million each year in fellowship grants for women pursuing graduate degrees.
- Students can also apply for local and national scholarships to attend the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders.

Build Leadership Skills

- Attend the annual NCCWSL Leadership Conference that empowers women leaders from across the globe.
- Apply to bring an Elect Her workshop to your school and get women students the resources they need to run for student government.
- Get recommended for the National Student Advisory Council and serve as an AAUW ambassador on your campus.
- Join the AAUW student organization that is a global community for all students who want to empower women by fighting for the gender equity issues they care about.

Gain Real-World Experience

- Apply for an AAUW internship and prepare for careers in public policy, communications, development and more.
- Attend the AAUW Virtual Graduate School fair.
- Apply for a Campus Action Project grant which will fund your gender equity project.

Discounts!

- Special discounts on insurance with Nationwide
- 85% off prescriptions with their prescription savings card
- 15% off Princeton Review test prep materials
- Save up to 80% at Office Depot and Office Max
- Gain access to research journals such as New Scientist, DiversityComm, and other archived research reports.

Western Oregon University is an AAUW Partner Member.

This means students can join for free!

Just go to: https://svc.aauw.org/RECore/wMembership/join_esaf_member.asp